Location Information:

The Pyle Center is the UW-Extension distance education and technology center. It is one block north of Madison's State Street, on the corner of Langdon Street and Lake Street. For those familiar with the campus area, The Pyle Center is next to the Red Gym and just east of the UW Memorial Union.

Several parking garages, surface lots, and on-street parking spaces are located within a short walk of the Pyle Center. Most city and campus lots operate on a first-come, first-served basis. Please plan accordingly to allow enough time to park your vehicle before your event.
